

VisionUp

- VisionUp is a smart video conferencing platform, dealing with the issue, that not everybody is able to speak or hear as it is often presupposed
- In comparison to other video conferencing platforms, VisionUp allows deaf and mute people to fully participate in online conversations
- VisionUp interprets live sign language used by deaf and mute attendees and prints the translation for users, who cannot understand sign language

